1 Initial Greetings

1.1 President of the European Karate Federation

The 2020 European Championships is set to be one of the most thrilling events in the history of our sport. The tournament to be held in Baku (Azerbaijan) from March 25 to 29 will not only crown the best Karate athletes of the year in Europe. It will turn out to be one of the most important competitions in the road to the Olympic Games Tokyo 2020.

Included in the Olympic qualification process and providing decisive points in the quest to Tokyo 2020, the 55th edition of the European Championships will be a unique opportunity to demonstrate the abilities and the sporting spirit of Karate as the Olympic debut of our sport gets closer and closer.

What's even more relevant, the European Championships in Baku will be the last event before the anticipated date of April 6, when the first Olympic karatekas will be confirmed by ranking. It will be the last chance for European athletes to be in Tokyo 2020.

I would like to take the opportunity to thank the Azerbaijan Karate Federation and its president Yashar Bashirov for their courage in organising such a first-class event. I am sure that the best athletes in the continent will find the best conditions to show their exceptional abilities in Baku.

Best of luck to all the participants and organisers and a big "Oss" to all of you Karate fans.

Antonio Espinós

President of the European Karate Federation

1.2. President of the Azerbaijan Karate Federation

Dear Friends,

It is a great honor for me, on behalf of the Azerbaijan National Karate Federation, to welcome you to the 55th European Senior Karate Championships in Baku, Azerbaijan.

We successfully hosted the European Junior & Cadet Championships in Baku in 2012. With great expectation and excitement, we look forward to the start of the 55th European Championships in Baku, which will be held on the eve of the XXXII Summer Olympic Games in Tokyo. I would like to note the importance of this event, which will differ from other championships, as it is the last qualifying tournament for athletes who want to attend the Olympics.

Baku is a historical city where you will find a wide range of cultural and entertainment events that will make your stay unforgettable. This is a city that has a great sports tradition and an excellent sports infrastructure. The 1st European Games held in Baku in 2015, the 4th Islamic Solidarity Games in 2017, as well as the World Championships in Judo, Wrestling and Rhythmic Gymnastics, the European Championships in Gymnastics, the Champions League football matches and the Formula 1 Grand Prix each left their indelible mark on the sports world. The venue of the European Championships, The National Gymnastic Arena, can be considered the banner-bearer for sports in the city. Our organizing committee will do everything possible to provide the best conditions and to make this event successful and memorable for all. Be assured that you will feel at home.

We would like to thank the WKF and its president, Mr. Antonio Espinós, for their support in organizing these championships. Importantly, we wish to express our most sincere gratitude to Mr. Ilham Aliyev, the President of Azerbaijan, and the President of the National Olympic Committee of Azerbaijan, for his contribution and assistance in the development of our sport.

We look forward to your arrival in Baku. Enjoy all that we can offer you. We wish you achieve excellent results.

See you in Baku.

Yashar Bashirov

President of the National Karate Federation of Azerbaijan

2.1 About Baku

Welcome to Azerbaijan! This is the Land of Fire and the Pearl of the Caucasus, a land where eastern colours combine magnificently with western progress. Azerbaijan is a country of unique nature, unmatched culture, centuries of history with its customs and traditions; a place which will satisfy the expectations of the most sophisticated gastronomists; and finally, it is the country of Caucasian hospitality and friendliness.

Baku, capital of Azerbaijan, sits on the shores of the Caspian Sea. This is the city where past and present are intricately intertwined.

Its UNESCO-listed Old City is ringed by burgeoning new skyscrapers yet, barely a few hours' drive away, timeless rural villages are backed by the soaring Caucasus mountains. Eclectic architecture – combining historical heritage of the east and west with iconic contemporary buildings – makes Baku one of the most beautiful cities in the world.

Baku is firmly established as a key city on the world stage. Open and tolerant, it is a global centre for intercultural dialogue and cooperation, regularly bringing together political, cultural, sport and religious leaders from around the world.

Baku has also hosted landmark international events, such as the Eurovision Song Contest 2012, the first-ever European Games in 2015, the Islamic Solidarity Games in 2017 and, annually since 2016, the Formula 1 Azerbaijan Grand Prix, 2019 European Youth Olympic Festival.

Baku has a population of about 2.3 million. The official language of the country is Azerbaijani, however Russian, English, and colloquial Turkish are widely spoken across the country, with the English language growing in popularity mostly in big cities.
